is familiar with all documents filed in support of, and in opposition to, the motion and the prior, 2 similar motion (Dkt. 429). 3 4 On April 6, 2020, at Docket Number 440, the Court denied Defendant's first, similar 5 motion. That Order is incorporated herein by this reference as a starting point for reexamination 6 7 of Defendant's request for release. 8 One reason Defendant's earlier motion was denied was for failure to exhaust 9 administrative remedies. That requirement has now been met. 10 11 The earlier motion was also denied because the Court found that Defendant had not 12 presented extraordinary and compelling reasons for a sentencing reduction. The Court listed the 13 14 considerations leading to that conclusion. Those considerations are reexamined as follows: 15 16 Defendant has not submitted information that he is more likely to get COVID-19 a) 17 in his place of incarceration, Coleman II – USP, than if he was in release status, including travel 18 cross-country. There is risk of infection everywhere, and prisons are potentially high-risk, but 19 20 Coleman II – USP does not appear to be a particular "hot spot" for COVID-19 infections. 21 22 23 24

defined in USSG § 1B1.13. While he does suffer from generally serious medical conditions, 2 there is no showing that they "substantially diminish the ability of the defendant to provide self-3 care within the environment of a correctional facility." Without such a showing, the requirements 4 5 of USSG § 1B1.13 are not met. 6 7 Mr. Young does not qualify for early release or modification of his sentence under 18 8 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1) and USSG § 1B1.13. He fails to show an extraordinary and compelling 9 reason warranting a sentence reduction, or that he is not a danger to the safely of any other person 10 11 or to the community. 12 13 ORDER 14 Defendant's Second Time Sensitive Motion for Compassionate Release Pursuant to 18 15 U.S.C. § 3582 (c) (1) (Dkt. 447) is DENIED. 16 17 The Clerk is directed to send uncertified copies of this Order to all counsel of record and 18 to any party appearing pro se at said party's last known address. 19 Dated this 1st day of September, 2020. 20 21 22 ROBERT J.
